WOOP WOOP SHIRAZ 2009

Woop Woop, a much uttered knockabout colloquialism, refers to somewhere in the middle of nowhere. Woop Woop is quintessentially Australian for “out there”.

Carefully selected parcels of grapes were sourced from a selection of renowned Shiraz vineyards in premium Australian wine regions, including Wrattenbully on the Limestone Coast and Langhorne Creek in South Australia, and Swan Reach in New South Wales, where brilliant sun and ancient soils do their best.

Formed some 750,000 years ago, the Limestone Coast region in the south-east of South Australia consists of an underlying limestone base which, when coupled with the relatively cool climate, contributes to unique grape growing conditions.

On fine, deep and fertile soils, Langhorne Creek is one of Australia's oldest and most significant wine regions. Adjacent to Lake Alexandrina, Australia's largest permanent freshwater lake, the region's climate is characterized by low winter dominant rainfall, and due to cooling breezes from the lake, enjoys moderate daytime temperatures during the growing season.

Winemaker, Ben Riggs and his team enthused as the fruits of their labour evolved into a full-bodied and flavoursome wine, deep-hued with richly scented aromatics and a long, soft and juicy palate. Of lush mouthfeel, bursting with blackberry, blueberry jam and liquorice, this wine guarantees a true Australian Shiraz experience for consumption over the next 5 years.

Woop Woop Shiraz, a crackerjack Australian that's “out there from out there!”
